One year ago my fiancé/husband decided to call it quits on me, and I was devastated. I was confused, sad, upset; you name it. Alhamdulillah though, it had led me to stumble upon your writings. This past year has been a very emotional year however an excellent learning process to mend my heart correctly. I learned only Allah belongs in the heart and the rest is a gift that belongs in the hand; even if they are halal things. Your writings have helped me so much there are no words to describe it. Three weeks ago my father Allah yirhamo (May God have mercy on him) passed away very suddenly leaving my entire family and community shocked and devastated; yet my first thought was Inna lillah w lina elayhi raji'oon, to Allah we belong and to Him we shall return; my dad went Home insbAllah. Instead of getting upset, I found myself truly thankful Allah chose him to be my dad and let me have had him for as long as I did. Regardless of the situation, Allah always chooses the best for us, so I believe this was the best time for him to go.

I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart, because had I not learned and reflected on your writings, I don't think I would be who I am today, handling the loss of one of my favorite people in the world. I would like to say it was one specific piece of writing that inspired me, but it wasn't; it was your entire collection. I make dua Allah rewards you immensely, and continuously inspires you and allows you to keep doing what you're doing. May Allah bless and protect your loved ones. Please make dua for my father.

I would like to extend my gratitude to you, for changing my life completely, Allah bless you dear. I was going through terrible phase of my life, darkness, depression, hollowness and negativity was all over me. Then I stumbled upon your articles. Enlightened I am now! Alhamdulillah. Thank you and keep writing as Allah "the Great" has blessed you with this quality. May Allah accept all duaa's (supplications) I'm making for you ...actually this the only one thing I can say, because no words are enough!

—Maryam I.

Your words hit me so hard I had to slow down whilst reading and breathe. I always took pride in not being superficial, in not being materialistic all the while depending on people I loved to make me happy. And when they let me down or left me, it shook my world, the very ground I stood on. There is a constant need to be loved, and from love I derive happiness. But it is a constant battle to realize that this love is to come from my relationship with Allah and not people. I'm an idealist, a giver, giving joy to others makes me happy; but it is so hard to understand and remember that no, these people, this life, is not to be expected of. Alhamdulillah reading your words was like taking a good hard look at myself, one that I wasn't ready to take... this helps so much. God bless you for being real.

I just want to take this time to tell you that I absolutely love your articles. I am an avid reader since I
